

NEW TAX LAW
HIT BY RULINGState May Lose $1,000,000 in Bank Levies AnnuallyTax-Free Security Revenues
Excluded from IncomesMassachusetts Case Decision Proves Surprise Here

SAN FRANCISCO, May 22. (Exclusive)—The ruling of the United States Supreme Court holding that revenues from tax-exempt securities such as Federal, State and municipal government bonds must be included from the net income of banks and similar institutions in levying State taxes was construed today as a devastating blow to the State's new 4 per cent bank tax law. It is believed $1,000,000 or more annually in bank taxes may be lost to the State because of the decision.

The new bank-tax law was passed as an emergency measure by the recent Legislature and the decision was wholly unexpected, according to State officials.

ESCAPE NOTICE HERE

The decision, handed down at Washington, virtually had escaped notice here until Vincent K. Butler, counsel for the American Trust Company and the California group of the Investment Bankers' Association of America, telegraphed to the national capital and asked for detailed information.

The decision, delivered in the case of Macallen vs. the State of Massachusetts, by Associate Justice Sutherland, held that the Massachusetts tax law, similar to that of the California statute, indirectly taxed securities of the United States government among the earning assets of the corporation and that this is improper under the Federal Constitution. It was held that the Massachusetts statute violates the contract which the State and its political subdivisions had made with holders of securities in that they are exempt from taxes.

The decision does not affect the structure of the tax act, but it will have a serious effect upon the income to be derived from the bank tax, declared Frank L. Guerra, deputy Attorney General, who has served as counsel for the California Tax Commission for the past two years.

COPY SENT FOR

Guerra declared the language of the decision appears to be far-reaching and that the exact effect of the action cannot be determined until the complete text is available. Guerra conferred tonight with Tax Commissioner Bright, who is to administer the provisions of the new law. They sent to Washington for a copy of the decision.

The most that the decision can do will be to prevent California authorities from including in the net income law for taxation purposes the revenues derived from tax-exempt securities, Guerra declared.

The overturning of the Massachusetts statute was declared by Guerra and by Attorney Butler.

WASHINGTON, May 22. (AP)—Federal fish hatcheries last year furnished 7,000,000,000 baby fish for stocking the coastal ocean waters, the lakes and the streams of the United States.

Of the total, as reported by the Commerce Department, 5,570,000,000 were cod, haddock and flounder, food fish for North Atlantic waters. Another 500,000,000 went to the Great Lakes, while 35,000,000 Pacific salmon fry were released. The remainder consisted of the various varieties of fish released in streams to maintain the supply for sportmen.

LINDBERGH'S IN

He saw him driving alone on Palmdale avenue.

CHARLOTTE WAITS

Late in the afternoon, at 4:30 o'clock, the Falcon-Dunlap plane, owned by the airport field at Schenectady, N. Y., piloted by Andy Enlow, a buddy of Lindbergh, it had taken off from Roosevelt Field, Long Island, after a false start and a stop at the Curtiss airport, Valley Stream, Long Island.

Enlow, as reliable as his more famous passenger, Lindbergh, was flying field with his companion, Peter Stephenson, a flying student. Whether the elusive honeycomber intended motorizing to Schenectady, Ga., to deliver a lecture, and there boarding the Falcon for a mystery flight in further quest of privacy, could not be learned tonight. It was assumed they might appear at Schenectady, about a five-hour drive from Englewood, tomorrow.

NOT AT HOME

Nor could the veil covering the whereabouts of their Englewood hideaway be pierced today. They were not at the slately Morrow mansion, where the police guard was increased from two to three men after an unexplained telephone call from Ambassador Morrow in Washington to Police Chief O'Neil.

Diligent survey of the homes of friends of the Lindberghs and the Morrrows failed to reveal a sign of the transatlantic ace and his bride. Wherever they were, it is certain that Lindbergh, who likes his dry joke, was smiling at the neat job he has made of outwitting the efforts of government men.

RECEPTION FOR THEM

Additional evidence that the noted newsmen are lingering somewhere in North Jersey, within easy motor distance of Englewood, came in a crowd, circulated through intimate friends of the newsmen, that they intend to give a large reception for "Anne and Charles" this week.

The Morrrows intend going to their summer home at North Haven, N. C., next week. Servants have been told to be ready to depart on Monday. The reception, it is authoritatively said, will be given late this week, and with the vanishing pair present, unless there is a decided change of plan.

The Ambassador, a guest at the White House (London) is due back from Washington in a day or two. Billingsley at the State Department today said he disclaimed knowledge of Lindbergh and Anne's whereabouts.

HE MAKES JOKES

"The job of being Ambassador is easy," he said, "compared with that of being a father-in-law."

The abrupt departure of his Falcon and its landing at Schenectady, instead of Portland, its destination as given out by Curtiss officials, were the only definite Lindbergh moves, apart from his shopping expedition, in a day given over by the press and public to wild speculation.

The Lindberghs were placed in numerous hideaways. Residents of Locust Valley, L. I., the swank estate where several House of Morgan partners have homes, were questioned on the immense estate of Truller Davidson, Resident of Sea Cliff, L. I., were doubly confident that the honeycombers had swept down into a harbor on the S. S. Guguenheim estate last night and there boarded the Guguenheim yacht Trillora.

Both theories lacked confirmation. The Trillora was anchored off the Columbia Yacht Club in the son River Monday night and until mid-afternoon today. At that time it weighed anchor and steamed down to the Battery to pick up Lindbergh for a cruise to his estate.

MIGHT, AT THAT

However, the Trillora's master had orders to look out for Lindbergh and, if he arrived, to take him to Port Washington, L. I. All the while the Trillora lay at anchor in the Hudson she flew her blue pennant, "owner ashore," and no guest flag.

Neighbors of the S. R. and Harry Guguenheims at Sands Point, L. I., reported today that a large amphibian had been gracefully landed in a Guguenheim inlet at about 9:30 a. m. last night. Both the Guguenheims are intimate friends of Lindbergh. That and the coincidence of the yacht being missing, there this morning gave rise to the belief that Lindbergh and Anne had flown to the Trillora's berth and boarded her for a honeymoon cruise—perhaps to North Haven.

FOUR IN ONE FAMILY KILLED

OTTAWA (Kan.) May 22. (AP)—Four members of one family were killed this afternoon when their motor car was struck by a train at a crossing in Melvern, twenty miles southwest here. The dead: Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Bethell, both about 60 years of age, of Pomona, Kan., and their two granddaughters, Madeline Bethell, 11, and Shirley Bethell, 8.

HOUSE PASSES
BILL ON TARIFFMeasure Wins on Vote of 264 to 147Twenty Democrats Lend Their SupportMore Power Provided for President on Rates

President, voted for the motion and also against the bill. Twenty Democrats joined 244 Republicans in voting for the bill. Twelve Republicans and one Farmer-Labor combined with 134 Democrats in opposing it.

Most of the Democratic support came from Florida, Louisiana and Texas, products of which are given higher protection in dozens of instances, especially Louisiana cane sugar. Five Minnesota Republicans, regarded as a progressive group, joined a scattering of other majority members in opposition.

Republicans and Democrats on the Ways and Means Committee dominated the debate just before passage. Representative Bailey of Iowa, a minority committee member, while praising Chairman Hawley for his conduct of the public hearings, declared if the Senate changes the bill without improvement, he will help the country, and if it fails to change it at all, "God help the Republican party."

DEMOCRATIC SUPPORTERS

Democrats who voted for the bill are:

Aswell, De Rouen, Kemp, O'Connor, Sparring and Wilson of Louisiana; Celler of New York, Connery of Massachusetts, Drane of Missouri; Hill of Washington; Hudspeeth and McCloskey of Texas; Lee of California; Lowmyer of Indiana; O'Connell of Rhode Island; Taylor of Colorado and Underwood of Ohio.

Republicans who voted against the bill are:

Beck of Pennsylvania; Christopher of South Dakota; Lamberth of Kansas; La Guardia of New York; Bailey of Missouri; Hall of Wisconsin; Campbell of Iowa; Andersen, Christgau, Clague, Goodwin and Wrigg of Minnesota.

The former-labor member, Knolls of Minnesota, also voted against the bill.

SUGAR MAIN ITEM

The increase of 54 of a cent to 2.64 cents in the existing duty of 1.74 cents a pound on Cuban raw sugar was regarded as the most far-reaching change in rates made by the bill. Considerable opposition to the increase was voiced in debate but no opportunity was given to amend it under the rule.

A statement issued by Stephen H. Beal, Sugar Association, said the bill passed declared its adoption was "heartening to the domestic sugar producers of the United States and our insular possessions."

Other duty advances are on such important commodities as wool, live cattle and hogs, dairy products, grains, textiles, glass, paper, furniture and clothing of all kinds.

Articles transferred from the free to the dutiable list and given substantial rate increases include hides, leather, boots and shoes, cement, brick, shingles and cedar, maple and birch lumber.

In view of the rise from 31 to 34 cents a pound in the rate on raw wool, compensatory increases are provided on manufacturers of wool. Similar compensatory rates are placed on sugar by-products.

COTTON STILL FREE

Although raw cotton is left on the free list, cotton manufacturers are given substantial rises in rates for a host of helping the New England textile industry.

The measure recreates the Tariff Commission by giving the President authority to terminate the terms of the present six commissioners at his will by sending the names of their successors to the Senate for confirmation. He could retain any present member, however, if he so desired.

The new commission would be composed of seven members instead of six and the President would be authorized to ignore party affiliations in selecting his appointees. The present law provides that not more than three commissioners may be of the same political party.

Salaries of the commissioners would be raised from $7000 to $12,000 and their terms would be seven years instead of twelve as at present.

PRICE RATE BASIS

To speed up the commission's work in determining the necessity for rate changes, the bill proposes that it may take into consideration differences in conditions of production between domestic and foreign articles in the principal markets of difference in cost of production, as provided in existing law.

In exercising his power under the flexible provisions, the President would be allowed to ignore party affiliations in selecting his appointees. The present law provides that not more than three commissioners may be of the same political party.

Salaries of the commissioners would be raised from $7000 to $12,000 and their terms would be seven years instead of twelve as at present.

The measure places no restriction on importation of free duty sugar from the Philippines, such as was advocated by many representatives from the western beet sugar-producing States.

Gov. Young Also Signs Bill Providing for State
Assistance to Needy Blind

SACRAMENTO, May 22. (AP)—State aid for the needy aged and helpless blind of California was assured today by the action of Gov. Young in penning his signature of executive approval to two measures passed by the 1929 legislature.

Ceremonies attended the Governor's approval of the two bills with members of the Legislature, bankers, several members of the judiciary, social service workers and representatives of labor groups who were termed the two "most humanely constructive measures passed by the Legislature" with his signature. Both acts are effective January 1, 1933.

Assembly Bill 166, otherwise known as the "Old Age Pension Bill," sets up a plan whereby indigent aged persons may receive a sum not to exceed $1 a day, one half payable by the State and one half by the county in which the beneficiary resides. In order that the bill be self-sustaining, the act requires that the beneficiary must be at least 70 years of age, have been a resident of the State fifteen years and the county one year, and without children or persons to support him. His property may not exceed $3000 in value, and any outside income must be counted as a part of the total income of $1 a day.

Assembly Bill 117 is an attempt to relieve blind persons who are without other means of support and who cannot be rehabilitated for self-support through the facilities offered by the State departments of education and institutions. The maximum aid to carry the fight to the Senate on a few schedules affecting California products which did not receive sufficient notice in the House. The bill was introduced by the Senate Finance Committee, headed by Senator George A. Brown, and was passed by the Senate on May 19.

The bill provides for the creation of a new department of the State, the Department of the Deaf and the Blind, which will be headed by a commissioner. The department will be responsible for the education and training of the deaf and blind, and for the care and support of the indigent aged and helpless blind.

enforcement and the growth of organized crime, which has spread in every field of endeavor and in every part of our country," the President said. "A nation doesn't fail from its growth of wealth or power. But no nation can for long survive the failure of its citizens to respect and obey the laws which they themselves make. Nor can it survive a decadence of the moral and spiritual concepts that are the basis of respect for law nor neglect to organize itself to defend crime and the corruption that flows from it. Nor is this a problem confined to the enforcement and obedience of one law or the laws of the Federal or State governments separately. The problem is partly the attitude toward all law."

"It is my hope that the commission shall obtain an accurate determination of fact and cause, following them with constructive, courageous conclusions, which will bring public understanding and command public support of its solutions. The general public approval of the necessity for the creation of this commission and the extraordinary universal approval of its membership, are in themselves evidence of the responsibility that lies upon you and of the great public concern in your task and of the hopes that you may succeed."

Administration officials not only expressed regret that Mrs. Willibrand found herself unable longer to adhere to the wishes of the President that she remain in office, but also that reports of friction between her and Atty.-Gen. Mitchell and President Hoover had been circulated.

Atty.-Gen. Mitchell said he had declined to accept Mrs. Willibrand's resignation on March 8 and "hoped she could be persuaded to remain."

UNIVERSITY RECORDS FOUND

Steam Shovel Uncovers Files of U.C. Dental College Buried Forty-four Years Ago

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28. (Exclusive)—Early records of the University of California's college of dentistry here, considered irretrievably lost for forty-four years, have been uncovered by the steam shovel of a contracting company on the Bay Shore Highway, it was announced today by Dean Millberry. The records include some of the first official communications relating to the school, as well as the first announcements.

They were found in a hermetically sealed zinc box incased in lead and both incased in a redwood chest. Dean Millberry said their recovery closes an important gap in the school's history, leaving nothing missing now but records just preceding the disaster of 1906.

The recovery disclosed a feud waged more than forty years ago between the late S. W. Dennis, first dean of the college, and his successor, whom Dennis described as a turbulent spirit despite his excellence as a dentist. Dennis, running off with the records and burying them. Dr. C. L. Goddard and Dr. L. L. Dunbar, his immediate successors, never were able to make him capitulate to the point of returning the records. The card of a San Francisco plumber between the zinc and lead linings indicated not only that he had constructed the multiple receptacle, but that it had been buried in 1896.

Instant items found include two books of letters addressed to the dean and to other members of the faculty covering the years 1880 to 1887. These files contain many of the earliest original communications dealing with the establishment of the college, including letters from President W. T. Reid, Secretary J. H. C. Bonine, Recorder William Carey Jones, members of the board of regents, and officials of the State and of other universities.

The young man, who had been in the hospital for several days, was found by his mother, Mrs. Sagan, who had been at his side for days, but was absent at his death. He had been suffering from a severe mental breakdown, and his parents had objected to his marriage to a girl named Marie.

Estate Greatly Jumps in Value Prior to Closing

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28. (Exclusive)—One-half an estate appraised in 1917 at $188,589 has so increased in value through investments, chiefly in Kern county oil lands, that when it was distributed today in the court of Superior Judge Graham it was found to amount to more than $1,000,000.

The recipient of the half-share is Mrs. Yvonne Catherine Alferitz, nee Landloom of Berkeley, who inherited it from the estate of her grandmother, Mrs. Suzanne Alferitz, who died here in 1916.

Lyman I. Mowry, once a prominent attorney of this city, had been greatly instrumental in building up the estate through careful investments, but he himself died in poverty a year ago.

Author's Estate Appraisal Made

NEW YORK, May 28. (Exclusive)—Appraisal of the estate of George Barr McCutcheon, author of the "Graustark" novels and other books, was submitted today by Frank C. Dodd of Dodd & Co., which published Mr. McCutcheon's works for twenty years.

The appraisal shows that when Mr. McCutcheon died October 23, last, he left an estate of $302,553 gross and $363,337 net. He owned bonds worth $204,729, but all his stock holdings were found to be worthless. His personal effects, including thirty-five paintings, which were sold for $70,882, were valued at $80,978, while he had $43,862 cash and $42,944 in notes and accounts.

Czechs' Secret Code Missing

It is believed that spies learned of its transmission and stole the code from the mail bag. Loss of the code will entail the extremely laborious and costly work of retransmitting it.

Rescued Flyers Arrive at Port

SYDNEY (Australia) May 28. (Exclusive)—Lieut. Molr and Flying Officer Owen of the London-to-Australia flight arrived at Port Darwin today aboard the lighthouse steamer Kyogle. Capt. Brash, the airman who discovered them Sunday, stranded on Cape Don after the crash of their machine the 17th inst., will carry them in the plane Atlanta to Brisbane, where Owen, who was injured internally when the plane crashed, will be given medical attention.

The airmen were lucky not to land in the water, as the locality of the lighthouse at Cape Don is infested with sharks and the mangrove swamps are alive with crocodiles.

Retail Rum Tax Collection Valid

NEW ORLEANS, May 28. (AP)—The retail liquor tax under the internal revenue law can be levied against bootleggers, Federal Judge Watkins held today in a test case.

Passage of the Volstead Act, he ruled, did not nullify the old revenue law. Prohibition officials said they will keep a record of all convicted bootleggers for the purpose of collecting the tax.

LIQUOR PROXY SCHEME FAILS

Man Hired by Rum Seller to Face Court for Him Unmasked

NEW YORK, May 28. (AP)—The scheme of a Brooklyn speakeasy proprietor of hiring a jobless man to double the Volstead Act failed in Federal court because of a detective's memory for faces.

After the expose Benjamin Flaugh told Judge Inch 'he had been promised a day's wages and $5 by Joseph Jarbowski in the event a fine was imposed, and a larger sum if a jail sentence was given. He said he accepted the offer because he was without a job and seven months behind with his rent.

Jarbowski, hailed into court, admitted the subterfuge and was sentenced to six months in jail.

MAGRUDER STILL WAITS FOR ORDERS

Admiral May Be Kept in Doubt Until Time for His Retirement in 1931

WASHINGTON, May 28. (AP)—Rear-Admiral Thomas P. Magruder is still awaiting orders.

Shortly after taking the oath of office as Secretary of the Navy, Charles Francis Adams announced he would make some disposal of the case of the officer who was removed from command of the Philadelphia Navy Yard in 1927 after his publication of articles attacking the organization of the Navy.

This announcement has not been made and the delay has caused speculation as to whether Admiral Magruder may not be left without assignment until the time for his retirement because of age in November, 1931.

Shortly after Secretary Adams' announcement that he intended to do something about the Magruder case there was a report that the admiral had been informed that unless he asked for retirement he would be retired on furlough at half pay. Following this there were other reports that friends of the naval officer were using their influence to prevent this denouement of the controversy and that a result the Secretary of the Navy had reopened his inquiry into the matter.

Magruder's criticism of the Navy Department, confined chiefly to organization, resulted in his being before the House Naval Committee and a reply to the charges by the Navy. The committee requested the admiral to submit a plan for reorganization of the Navy and after this dropped the case.

Her fiance, former Capt. Fritz von Wedel, was summoned by the police for questioning today. This morning he was found dead, a suicide, in the famous Grunewald forest.

CLUB WOMEN PLAN SURVEY

Careless Housewives Will be Enumerated

Accounting for Accidents Asked by Federation

Biennial Council Opens With 1000 Delegates Present

SWAMPSCOTT (Mass.) May 28. (Exclusive)—American women are to be called to account next year for the number of accidents in the home due directly or indirectly to their ignorance and carelessness. This will be brought about through a survey to be undertaken by the General Federation of Women's Clubs in co-operation with the United States Department of Commerce, according to an announcement by Mrs. John F. Sippel, president of the federation this afternoon.

The Federation's biennial council opened here today with more than 1000 delegates attending.

FAILURE TO BE SHOWN

"If a woman leaves the matches where the baby can reach them and sets the house on fire, if she forgets to put the medicine on the high shelf, it is not an accident but a direct consequence of failure on her part," said Mrs. Sippel. "We feel that such a survey as we propose to conduct will bring home to the entire country the lesson of women's responsibility in the home. The situation will be compiled by the Department of Commerce and next year at our convention in Denver we shall have a complete report and exhibit."

Another survey to be conducted by the General Federation will show the methods used by women in their buying. It will cover especially the matter of credit. How often does a woman buy on credit in the course of a year? How long does it run?

How often does she buy an article and send it back? These are some of the questions which will be put before the women of the Federation in the questionnaires. The answers will not be signed with the names of individuals but will be returned wholesale by State and local leaders. This will show the state of buying in various localities which is the information desired by the Department of Commerce.

HER RESPONSIBILITIES

Women's responsibility in the home was rubbed in also at the morning session today by Ray M. Hudson, assistant director of the National Bureau of Standards of the Department of Commerce. He told them their business is the most important in the world and enumerated the many fields in which the housekeeper must be an expert, cooking, home-making, household decoration, knowledge of food values and fabrics, labor-saving equipment, dressmaking, budget-making, the cultural opportunities of modern civilization, child-bearing and rearing, medicine, surgery, nursing, dieting, education, physical training and psychology.

The younger generation was welcomed into the fold of the General Federation when a whole afternoon program at the biennial council was devoted to the doing of junior members. Instead of issuing broadside against the lipstick and short skirts of the flapper generation as they used to do the club leaders of today devoted themselves to making friends with the youngsters and trying to lure them into the machinery of the federation.

Mrs. Robert J. Burdette of Pasadena, chairman of the international clubs, reported that seventy-one clubs in foreign countries, with a total membership of more than 70,000 are affiliated with the General Federation.

Negotiation on Tripartite Treaty Concluded

Territory Under Mandate of Great Britain

American Oil Interests in Joint Development

WASHINGTON, May 28. (P)—Negotiations for a tripartite treaty between the United States, Great Britain and the Kingdom of Iraq have been concluded and the signature of the treaty is expected shortly by officials of the State Department.

The principal purpose of the treaty is the recognition of the sovereignty of Iraq by the United States and the protection of American interests in the kingdom, which is a mandated territory under Great Britain. Five American oil companies are participating with British, French and Dutch interests in the development of the Iraq oil fields.

COLBY INTERESTED

Bainbridge Colby, Secretary of State in the Wilson administration, first interceded with the British government to bring about American participation in the oil developments. The negotiations were carried on by Charles Evans Hughes, then Secretary of State. The American companies finally were granted a 23 1/2 per cent interest in the developments.

Recognition of the kingdom, which formerly was a part of the Turkish Empire, was held up pending a settlement of the Turkish-Mandate boundary question. The present negotiations were begun about a year and a half ago in both London and Baghdad. The treaty will be signed in London. A Cabinet crisis in Iraq has slightly delayed signature.

LIKE PALESTINE FACT

The general lines of the Anglo-American treaty of 1924 concerning American rights in the mandated territory of Palestine will be followed in the treaty with Iraq, it was indicated. Under the tripartite convention, American nationals will enjoy all rights and benefits in Iraq on the same basis as those granted under the mandate to nationals of members of the League of Nations. American property rights will be respected and American philanthropic and religious institutions will be permitted to establish schools, missions and churches in the kingdom.

WEDNESDAY MORNING
Wouldn't Take
$5000 for Go
Sargon Did

I expect I know more wonderful Sargon than any of Los Angeles
for I had six bottles
for me from Broken
over a year ago,
didn't take five thousand for what they did for

MRS. MARGARET ROSA

"One way the Sargon treatment is different from any other I ever took, it doesn't just for a few days or weeks benefits are lasting. From
I finished those six bottles
I never needed another of medicines.

"I have been living in California
twenty years, and enjoy up to about ten years
when my health began to fail.
about a year ago, my stomach all to pieces, and I went down in nearly every meal. I couldn't half sleep at night. It looked like all the energy I ever had was gone. I lost my appetite completely, and the sight of food almost sickened me. I had to struggle to eat a little, but my stomach disagreed with me. I was bilious, and I suffered with gas and stomach distress every meal. I was miserable, and my circulation was poor, my nerves were shaky, my tongue coated, and I was weak, dull and worn out. After all the treatment I had been through,
I was about hopeless of ever getting well again. I tried about a dozen different medicines and treatments. I was told that if I thought I was going to get well, I would have to take some of them, and then I would believe any doctor's word, and I ordered some from Broken Bow, Texas, and I call the day they arrived. The first time I took one, and by the time I had taken three bottles I was feeling better. My appetite came back, and it looked like I was getting well. I was hungry all the time. I was strong, and every bit of stomach trouble disappeared.
My nerves are steady, my stomach is restful and refreshed. For the first time in years I proved a threat of illness. I wouldn't have believed any medicine on earth could have brought me such strength and energy. Now, I feel like I can almost feel myself with new circulation, and I am slow of new, rich blood.
I have soft Mass Pills are wonderful. They stimulated my stomach, my constipation and my color is healthy. I have been feeling strong and good, ever since I finished those six bottles. I am stronger than I was a year ago. If anybody was suffering from a weak stomach, if they will take me I will be glad to tell them the above remarkable state
I am in. I was recently made by Mrs.
Margaret Rosa, a highly educated resident of 444 E. 41st St.,
New York City.

LADY ASTOR SHEDS TAUNTS

Hecklers and Rain Fail to Dunt Her in Final Swing of Political Campaign

PLYMOUTH (Eng.) May 28. (AP)—Waving the figurative banners of temperance and conservatism, Lady Astor, American-born Member of Parliament, today launched into the final swing of her campaign for reelection unimpaired by steady rain and numerous hecklers.

In a luxurious automobile fitted with an amplifier she made one of her final canvasses of the Sutton division which has returned her to Commons five times.

To all the poorer districts inhabited by dock workers, who she out a precarious existence or are waiting hopefully for the election to remedy the unemployment situation, she went the car piloted by "Bert," her small but pugnacious chauffeur.

Bert is ready at all times to fight for the principles that Lady Astor pronounces.

At the poorer districts she was greeted by a hail of abuse and jeers. "Don't waste your time, Bert. That young man isn't worth it."

WOMEN APPEALED TO

The candidate appealed to the women by going to their front doors, there seemed little sympathy among the workers' families.

"I don't believe in prohibition for England," said Lady Astor. "I believe in keeping youths under 18 years of age out of public houses. How many of you like to see your boys in those places?"

"No, it costs too much. That's why," came a retort from a portly man.

Lady Astor appeared at the entrance to the docks as the noon whistle blew and greeted the men and girls workers with shouts of "Hello there, come on over."

Here she concluded her plea for votes with the question—"Is there a volley of 'no' which did not daunt her."

At her home she received reports from society girls and titled friends who are out working for her success.

at the Main Hotel as Miss Anna Selvid.

"That was my mother's maiden name," she explained. "I used it because I didn't want my presence there to be known. I went away after staying there a week and then came back. I then registered under my own name. The clerk was quite puzzled. 'That's my real name,' I told him. 'It's quite all right!'"

Her first act was to become acquainted with Father Carpenter of St. Mary's Church there. She had heard that Father Carpenter knew Dr. A. Motilwari, president of the Rayon Mills, and she sought an introduction to the president.

The priest, who is earnestly working to end the strike, gladly took her to the rayon mill head and at that interview she laid the groundwork for the settlement. After a number of meetings and many protracted arguments with the mill president, the persistent girl won a plan which was satisfactory to both sides.

VIEWS ON THINGS

When asked her views concerning other things than strikes, Miss Weinstock replied:

"I like to think I'm an average girl. I like all the things average girls like. I like the theater, dancing, sports."

She paused a moment and then added earnestly:

"But most of all I like my work. To my mind the greatest thrill in life is the work I am trying to do. To go into a city and see a great mill bring still and silent—its workers out on strike—to play a tiny part in putting those workers back again at their jobs and to come back later to the town and see that mill busy, whirling and alive with activity—that, to me, is the greatest thrill in life."

CHURCH UNION SPEED PLEADED

Presbyterian Assembly
Protests Delay

New Princeton Seminary
Board Elected

Name of Presbytery at Benicia Changed

ST. PAUL, May 22. (AP)—A plea to those in charge of negotiations to speed up the movement looking toward organic union of Reformed churches was delivered today before the 141st general assembly of the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America.

Several speakers urged that no further delay be had in negotiating for union with the Methodist churches and Dr. Cleland B. Mc-Afee, of Chicago, the moderator, added emphasis with the statement:
"We are out for all kinds of union with all followers of Christ." Prolonged applause followed.

TWO BOARDS REPLACED

Members of the new board for the Princeton Theological Seminary were elected in line with reorganization of the management. The board is to replace two boards, one of trustees and the other of directors. The election was marked by a request for a recording of dissent
by Dr. J. Gresham Machen, a member of the faculty and a leader of the ultra-conservatives of the faculty, who have opposed reorganization and who have charged Dr. J.
Rosa Stevenson, Seminary president, with being "too liberal." He made no announcement of his intention and would not discuss reports that he contemplates legal proceedings to block the reorganization.

Two opponents of the reorganization plan were omitted from the list of those elected. They were Samuel Craig, editor of the Presbyterian, described as an ultra-conservative organ published at Philadelphia, and Dr. E. D. Warfield, president of Wilson College, Chambersburg, Pa.

THOSE ELECTED

Those elected were:
From the former board of directors: Ministers, Dr. George Alexander, New York City; Wallace Radcliffe, Washington; William L. Mc-Ewan, Pittsburgh; Lewis H. Mudge, Pittsburgh; Clarence McGee, Cincinnati; Stewart Nye Hutchinson,

E. Speer, Englewood, N. J.; Dr. John
M. T. Finney of Baltimore; J. W. Wilson Smith, Philadelphia; John T.
Manson, New Haven, Ct.; Spencer
S. Marsh, Madison, N. J.
From the board of trustees: Ministers, Dr. John Dixon, Trenton, ner, Washington.

ters, Drs. William Hallack Johnson, Lincoln University, Pennsylvania; Asa J. Forry, Chicago; Benjamin F. Farber, New York City;

C. Ketles, Grove City, Pa.; Col.
Gullford Eabcock, Morristown, N.
J.; Kenneth Lanning, Trenton,
N. J.; and Paul O. Martin, Springfield, O.

NAME CHANGED

Nominations were presented for membership on the general council, the executive commission of the church. Three members will complete their service through a limitation rule which prevents them from serving more than two terms.
They are Dr. John Timothy Stone,
Chicago; Dr. William R. Taylor,
Philadelphia, and J. Willson Smith,
Philadelphia, a ruling elder. Elder J. J. Ross, Portland, Or., requested
he be not re-elected.

The following were nominated:
Ministers, Dr. William Hiram Foulkes, Newark, N. J., and W. E.
Brooks, Morgantown, W. Va.; ruling elders: Dr. Finney, W. R.
Heath, Buffalo, and Charles S.
Lawrence of Wichita, Kan.

Several organization changes within the church were approved this afternoon by the assembly, including:

Changing the name of the Presbytery of Benicia (California) to the Presbytery of the Redwoods.

Uniting the Presbyteries of Coos Bay and Southern Oregon into a single Presbytery to be called the "Presbytery of Southwest Oregon," and instructing Rev. J. E. Bend of South Bend, Or., to convene them for purposes of organization.

ABOUT TUNNEY

British Writer on Ship Hides
Away From Reporters
Who Besiege Vessel

TRIESTE (Italy) May 22.

(AP)—George Bernard Shaw today proved as obdurate as Major Swindon in his own play, "The Devil's Disciple," when he passed through here on his way to Venice from Brioni, where he has been spending a vacation in the company of Gene Tunney.

Shaw gave stern orders to the captain of the motorship Francesco Morosini to keep newspaper men away. He said he would not receive them under any pretext, and would not discuss the illness of Mrs. Tunney with anyone.

Shaw remained locked in his cabin for an hour before the ship sailed.

CALL HEAVY FOR SOUND DEVICE

Western Electric Reports
Theater Installations
Run 250 Monthly

NEW YORK, May 22. (Exclusive)—Western Electric Company has equipped 1912 theaters in the United States and 125 in foreign countries with its sound reproducing equipment and is now installing more than 250 per month,
it was announced here today.

Fifty sound installations engineers were recently sent to forty-four Western Electric wired houses in the islands.

PROHIBITION

Organization Formed to Work for Change in Dry
Laws of Nation

CHICAGO, May 22. (AP)—Temporary formation of a woman's organization designed to work for a change in the national prohibition laws was announced here today by Mrs. Charles H. Sabin of New York, formerly a member of the Republican National Committee of that State.

The organization is to be known as the Women's Organization for National Prohibition Reform. A statement issued said in part:

"To accomplish our purpose we propose to deal with facts, not fancies."

"We deplore the evident hypocrisy of many of those who hold or seek public office."

"Too often it is cynically assumed that so far as the Volstead Act is concerned a man's acts need not conform with his votes. We believe in exposing such hypocrisy because such men are unfit for public office."

"We will urge women to fulfill their obligations as citizens. We believe that the prohibition law violates the fundamental principles of our government, and therefore we women, representing many fields of endeavor and activity, have pledged ourselves to give our uttermost in aid of a sane solution."

harson's estranged wife.

The Farquharsons were married guilty to a charge of slaying his infant daughter near West Point,

in Folsom by Superior Judge Smith
at San Andreas.

The court said the case was first-he simply shot the child and she ceased to breathe. Her body was disinterred from beneath the cabin where the family formerly lived.

OFFICIAL ENDS LIFE,

from a ferry boat, Arthur W. Goldsworthy, manager of the electric department of the Alameda Municipal Light Company, shot and killed himself in his home here today
while his wife was in another room.
She said he had been despondent since a nervous breakdown some months ago, which she attributed to overwork. He had managed the light department since 1899.

of Thomas F. Bell, one of the heirs of the $1,000,000 estate of the pioneer family of that name, died in her Alhambra home Sunday from

CHURCH SESSION

Union of National Groups
Proposed at Meeting

Plan Outlined Before
Congregationalists

Christian Denomination Men
Speak at Gathering

DETROIT, May 22. (AP)—Proposals for the merger of the National Council of the Congregational churches and the general convention of the Christian church were heard and discussed at the opening session of the biennial meeting of the Congregationalists here this afternoon.

In general the proposals were greeted enthusiastically by the Congregationalists. Rev. Horace Holton, of the American Board; Rev. William Horace Day, of Bridgeport; Rev. Charles E. Burton, general secretary of the National Council, and Rev. F. G. Coffin, of Columbus, O., president of the Christian Church body, spoke favorably of the union of the two national bodies.

The first business of the meeting following the organization was the election of Fred B. Smith of Walla Walla, N. Y., as moderator for the coming biennium. Mr.
Smith, a layman, has been identified with the work of the church for many years. He has occupied many positions in religious bodies outside of the Congregational church and founded the National Citizens' Committee of 1000 for law enforcement.

Twenty-two representatives of the general convention of the Christian church were elected corresponding members of the National Council of the Congregational Church.

BOATSWAIN OF VESTRIS
ON STAND

Loss of Steamer Evident,
He Says, Monday Morning;
Holds to Leak Theory

LONDON, May 22. (AP)—Warwick
Roberts, boatswain of the steamship Vestrís, testifying on the liner's loss, said that the vessel never recovered an upright position after the violent shock she sustained on the Sunday evening before she foundered.

The ship was making some water that evening through her half doors and submerged scuppers, but he could not account for all the water unless there was a leak somewhere.

By 6 o'clock Monday morning he felt that she was doomed.

When the order was given to lower boats, Roberts went to No. 3 on the starboard side. There was considerable difficulty in getting the boat launched but eventually he got away with three stewards and a youth. After the Vestrís sank they picked up about forty persons.

Asked if it would have been possible to get the passengers from the port to the starboard side, Roberts replied in the negative.

"Some of them were asked to come, but they would not," he said.

Welcome, Indeed
Mr. Joe Mueller

SAN FRANCISCO, May 22. (Exclusive)—Although he said he has hitch-hiked around the United States ever since the close of the World War, Joe Mueller, impoverished native of Belgium, told Travelers' Aid Society workers here today he never had heard of Los Angeles.

A purse was made up for him, whereupon Mueller hastily boarded a departing train for the south to see what kind of a place Los Angeles is. He is 32 years of age.

Who is "Mr. Neon"?

The word "neon" is the name given to one of the rare gases of the air by its discoverer, Sir Wm. Ramsay, in 1898. It is derived from the Greek word "neos" meaning new. It is not a trade name, nor is it the name of any company or individual. Neon is only one of the rare gases used in the manufacture of Neale-Rainbow luminous tubes.

HIGH LIGHTS IN HISTORY 1353 The Story of the World War 123—The Russian Provisional Government and the "Soviet" by J. CARROLL MANSFIELD

ON MARCH 14, 1917, THE DAY BEFORE Czar Nicholas abdicated, the provisional government appointed by the Russian Duma (RUSSIAN CONGRESS) BEGAN FUNCTIONING. THE NEW GOVERNMENT, HEADED BY PRINCE LVOFF, WAS COMPOSED OF MEN OF MODERATE VIEWS, AND SOON ACQUIRED APPARENT STABILITY. THE IMPERIAL CIVIL SERVICE TRANSFERRED ITS FORMER ALLEGIANCE TO THE CZAR TO THE NEW REGIME, AND ON MARCH 22 THE LVOFF GOVERNMENT WAS RECOGNIZED BY THE ALLIES. THE NEW RULERS OF RUSSIA PROMISED SWEEPING REFORMS, BUT THERE WERE SERIOUS OBSTACLES TO NATIONAL UNITY.

OPPOSED TO THE NEW GOVERNMENT IN MANY OF ITS AIMS STOOD THE "SOVIET" OR "COUNCIL OF WORKINGMEN'S AND SOLDIERS' DELEGATES," A POWERFUL SOCIALIST BODY THAT HAD COME INTO EXISTENCE IN PETROGRAD DURING THE REVOLUTION.

MANY OF THE RUSSIAN SOCIALISTS HELD "MODERATE" VIEWS, BUT THE SOVIET WAS LARGELY INFLUENCED BY A VERY ACTIVE, "RADICAL" FACTION (THE SO-CALLED "BOLSHEVIKI") THAT WISHED TO CONVERT THE REVOLUTION INTO A WAR AGAINST "CAPITAL" AND MAKE RUSSIA A COMMUNIST STATE AT ONCE.

IN THE VAST RURAL DISTRICTS THE PEASANTS FORMED LOCAL COUNCILS OR "SOVIETS." THEY ROSE AGAINST THE PRIVATE PROPRIETORS, AND BEGAN DRIVING OUT THE LAND OWNERS AND DIVIDING ESTATES AND FARMS AMONG THEMSELVES. THE BOLSHEVISTS STEADILY GREW IN POWER. TOMORROW—THE NEW RUSSIA AND THE WORLD WAR.

San Jose, Walter Waers, George Warboys and Fernando Ramos, Leading Los Angeles County Seniors.

Aircraft Profits Expected to Boost Total

Earnings of the automotive maintenance business of the Joseph Kreutzer Corporation for the first four months of this year indicate a net return of from 4-1/2 to 5-1/4 per cent for the year on the capitalization of $750,000, while the aircraft division of the company is expected to add substantially to the net profits, Joseph Kreutzer, president and general manager, stated yesterday.

Production of trimotored six-place air coaches has been under way for several months, following an experimental and development period of about one year, Mr. Kreutzer said. The company at present is occupying a temporary factory at Venice with a production capacity of six ships a month. Sixty-seven employees in addition to the executive personnel are engaged.

Orders from dealers and distributors in the eleven western states are sufficient to take the entire present output as fast as deliveries can be made, according to Mr. Kreutzer, who estimated on the volume of this anticipated business per share earnings of $2.50 a share for the year beginning the 1st inst. on the 150,000 shares of the corporation's capital stock. This estimate was exclusive of the earnings of the automotive end of the business which is doing a gross volume of $360,000 annually.

The corporation is now preparing to construct a permanent aircraft factory, details of which will be announced shortly. Directors of the company whose stock was recently listed on the Los Angeles Curb Exchange, in addition to Mr. Kreutzer, include C. H. Williams, vice-president of Rule & Sons, Inc., who is vice-president and treasurer of the Kreutzer Corporation; J. C. Howard, assistant manager of the Pacific American Fire Insurance Company; G. G. Elymyer, capitalist; Tom Edwards, general partner of Aircraft Securities Company, and Otto Konstanzer, who is secretary of the Kreutzer Corporation.

Henry S. McKee, president of American Capital Corporation, speaking on investment trusts, and Judge William Rhodes Hervey, vice-president of the Security-First National Bank, on the subject of pioneer bankers, were the principal speakers last evening at the annual banquet of the American Institute of Bankers, held at the Alexandria. The banquet was the first official function of the institute following the annual elections and is a regular practice each year to formally introduce the new officers. The program was arranged by C. E. Lones, president, while H. H. Smock, vice-president of the Security-First National Bank, was toastmaster.

This gathering, which was the twenty-second annual, officially closed student activities for the spring term. Nolan prize trip to Honolulu in recognition of her scholastic standing, the highest of all students during the four-year course.

Gain Predicted for Wright Aero

NEW YORK, May 28. (Exclusive) Wright Aeronautical Corporation's net profits for the current quarter are expected to exceed substantially the earnings of $622,000 in the corresponding period of 1927. It is understood that the profits for the first half of this year will exceed $1,300,000 or about $2.15 a share on 600,000 shares issued as compared with $1,097,000 or about $1.80 a share in the similar period of the previous year.

While some earnings estimates of upward of $20 a share for this year are still heard, official circles lean to the conservative figure of $8 a share with the admission that as a share will likely be achieved. However, there is no indication that the directors contemplate increasing the present dividend rate of $2 annually.

OIL OFFICERS ASK BONUS

Standard of New Jersey Proposes Special Fund for Management; Teagle Eliminates Self

BY EARLE E. CROWE

Placing of a premium on good management is a subject that will come before the stockholders of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey at the annual meeting on June 4. Walter C. Teagle, president, has proposed that the management receive 5 per cent of all net earnings above 7 per cent as a special bonus for services.

Mr. Teagle eliminates himself from the operation of the plan under which he would benefit substantially. "I am left free to advocate it as being in the best interest of the stockholders, without raising the inference that I have any selfish motive in so doing," said Mr. Teagle in recommending the adoption of the proposal.

BALLARD'S PLAN

Something of the same nature has been suggested by R. H. Ballard, president of the Southern California Edison Company. Mr. Ballard's plan, however, provided for the distribution of earnings above a certain figure among the management, the workers, the stockholders and the customers of the company. The fund would be distributed in the following manner: 25 per cent to the management and workers; 25 per cent to the stockholders; 25 per cent to the customers; and 25 per cent to the community.

Nearly every large corporation is vitally concerned with retaining the services of its executives, and with obtaining the services of such men wherever they are available. For this reason the practice is growing of offering special inducements to the outstanding members of the executive staff in order to insure the permanency of their services. Some corporations, like General Motors, permit the management to buy stock on favorable terms.

The Standard Oil of New Jersey plan, as outlined in Mr. Teagle's announcement, will operate in this manner:

PROGRAM OUTLINED

"After setting aside out of the net earnings of each year an amount equivalent to 1 per cent on the net assets at the close of the year, 5 per cent of any excess of net earnings over the amount thus set aside shall be available as a special compensation fund. Funds of this nature are not new. They are a special compensation from the fund shall be made by the executive committee of the board of directors, according to the relative value of the various participants' contribution to the success of the company."

The amount actually distributed in the last year was not over one-fifth of 1 per cent of the net assets at the close of the previous year.

Earnings of the Jersey company in 1926 were equivalent to $4.43 a share, compared with $1.52 in the previous year. Including extras the company is paying $1.50 a year, a rate not as generous as most other Standard Oil units.

Management of the Jersey company has been alert, however, in keeping pace with the trends of the industry. It has been among the first to go into various allied branches of the petroleum industry to protect the company's position, and recently effected a sale of a German group covering new methods for the production and refining of oil products by catalytic hydrogenation.

Atchison Rail Profits Jump

April net railway operating income of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company jumped 88 per cent ahead of April, 1927, and for the first four months increased 61 per cent over the corresponding period of the previous year, according to a statement issued yesterday by the Los Angeles office of the company.

The April net totaled $3,472,537, up $1,675,297, and for the four months aggregated $13,722,712, up $5,868,582. Gross revenue in April amounted to $19,001,719, up $1,625,463, or 10 per cent, and for the four months aggregated $78,334,218, up $9,868,094, up 8 per cent.

AIRCRAFT UNIT WILL INCREASE CAPITAL

The acquisition of several aircraft and aeronautical accessory concerns is expected to be announced shortly.

COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, May 28. (P)—The cotton market, closed considerably firmer today, but early declines were followed by advances on covering, together with trade and commission-house buying, which seemed to be stimulated by features in weather and crop reports. and Preferred Holders

Stockholders of the Van De Kamp's Holland Dutch Bakers, Inc., are to receive the privilege of subscribing to additional common and preferred stock which is being issued by directors in line with the expansion program of the company to extend its chain of bakeries up and down the Coast. William H. Brown, secretary, announced yesterday in a letter mailed to stockholders.

The $630 no par preferred outstanding will amount to 4000 shares. The amount of common stock was recently increased to 100,000 shares. Officials of the company own about 75 per cent of the stock.

No explanation of the huge drop in the price of the company's stock was forthcoming from the company or stock exchange officials.

After the 8000 shares of Club Aluminum stock were traded here yesterday, the closing figure representing the low for the year was a high of $4.3-4. The stock pays a yearly dividend of $2.

Rumor ascribed the break to collapse of a pool operating in the issue. The deferred opening arose to a report that trading had been suspended, but this was denied by stock exchange officials.

Economist Sees Further Decline in American Exports to Cuba by Imposition of Additional Tax

BY JOHN F. SINCLAIR

(Copyright, 1928, by North American Newspaper Alliance)

NEW YORK, May 28.—Raymond Leslie Buell of the Foreign Policy Association, is probably doing as much writing on public and economic questions this year, as any other American. There seems to be no end to the studies he has undertaken during the last two years.

As head of the research staff of Electric during the last twelve months. The first one involved the purchase of electric equipment to a total of $26,000,000 over several years. Credit for a five-year term was also furnished by the American company.

Under this contract, American engineers will be sent to Soviet Russia to assist in the development of a technical trust in carrying out its plans of expansion of the electrical industry in all its phases. This initiative in calling the new model, a contemplated expenditure of about $85,000,000.

The production of electricity, which amounted to 5,500,000 kilowatt hours last year in Russia is to be increased under these new arrangements to around 20,000,000 kilowatt hours in the next five years.

Has the electrical era in Russia begun?

With the almost certain breakdown of the reparations conference, Premier Poincare hastens to say that it was not France who took the initiative in calling the new model, for France was completely satisfied with the Dawes plan, and asked for nothing more.

That they prefer the Dawes plan to anything else—then it looks as though Germany and France are agreed for the moment on international finance policy.

Germany, on the other hand, knows she has certain strong points, that she can call into account to protect her international integrity. These she refuses to give up unless she can make a much better deal with the Allies than she is able to make at this time. So it is evident that if France and Germany hold the views they do, nothing can be accomplished by continuing the conference further.

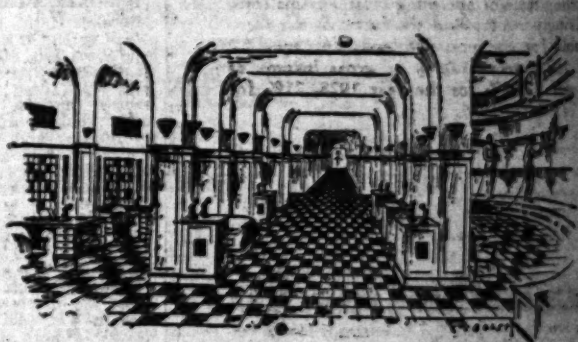

The important thing now is to leave matters at the Paris conference in such shape that another try can be made at the proper time without embarrassment to any nation.

RIGHTS TRADED REGULAR

On and after today Western Air Express rights will be traded in as regular on the Los Angeles Curb Exchange. Settlement of all when, as and if issued contracts in these rights will be made Friday, next.

The contract which was signed last week between R. T. Dewar, vice-president of International General Electric, and Saul G. Bron, chairman of the Amtorg Trading Corporation, is a most important and far-reaching one, between American industry and Soviet Russia.

This is the second contract which the Soviet government has negotiated with the International General

A CITY SURROUNDED ON THREE SIDES BY WATER
OVER 60 years ago, even before the first transcontinental railroad was completed, Southern Pacific realized that ferry service would ever be indispensable to a city that was surrounded on three sides by water. Accordingly, this great railroad company acquired the original ferry lines operating on San Francisco Bay and has long pioneered in this field.

And now, a new company, Southern Pacific Golden Gate Ferries, Ltd., has been formed through the merger of the automobile ferry services of Southern Pacific on San Francisco Bay, with the similar system of Golden Gate Ferries, Inc., in order to render an even greater service to the 1,300,000 people living in the San Francisco Bay Cities.

The new company will carry the entire automobile bay traffic between San Francisco and Marin County on the north, and between San Francisco and Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda, and other East Bay Cities. This traffic has shown an average annual increase of more than 20% for the last 13 years. Unification of these two systems will result in substantial economies and more efficient service. The Southern Pacific Company will own 51% of the stock.

The Lancer
By Harry Carr

THE story of the devoted wife who cut off her own head—or whatever it was—to please her husband; but that was tame devotion. My idea of rising to the top-most heights and flapping its tear-stained wings is the woman who goes with her husband in one of these darn camp wagons—and does the cooking while he sits at the steering wheel and admires the scenery. Every time the thing hits a rut the fried eggs go over into the folding writing desk.

THE NEW OASIS
Just as the modern drug store sells everything in the world except drugs, just so the gasoline station is becoming an emporium. Out here on the tourist trail through the desert you find gas stations that have almost forgotten the name of John D.'s favorite product. They sell oranges, serve meals and—in many cases—rent rooms.

FRUIT FLIES
Border officials grow fonder as they become seafarers. At the Arizona border a gloomy young man with a lantern makes you climb out of your car in the middle of the night and open all your suit cases. He is looking for the dread Mediterranean fruit fly. If he really thinks that people carry them in, wrapped in their best striped pajamas, he ought to do what he is doing and I'm for him.

HOW EUROPE HELPED
The governments of Europe from which these pests come are criminally indifferent. They never made a real or sincere effort to conquer any of them. When the corn borer was threatening ruin to every farm in the Middle West our Federal Agricultural Department sent over two experts to ask the officials in Czechoslovakia for specimens of the insect enemies of the corn borer. They were informed that no such animal existed.

DESERT HOTELS
I have never seen so many beautiful hotels as are springing up in the desert. Especially in Phoenix. It is evident that the greatest tourist asset of the Southwest is that part of it which was formerly abandoned to the chuckawalla and the horned toad.

TRIO ACCUSED
OF AD FRAUDS*Attorney Released on Bail;
Two Men Hunted*Police Chiefs and Sheriffs Association's Name Used*Space in "Magazine" Said to Have Been Sold

A prominent Los Angeles attorney was at liberty under his own recognizance yesterday and two other men were being sought by Deputy Sheriff Wolf and Zahn on charges of conspiracy to commit grand theft set forth in an indictment returned by the Los Angeles county grand jury recently, accusing them of fraudulently obtaining money through the California Police Chiefs' and Sheriffs' Association.

The attorney involved is Jay Chetner, who asserts that his only dealings with the two other accused men was as their attorney and legal adviser on routine matters.

The two men being sought by officers are Arthur Lavan and Martin Kruger.

MONEY OBTAINED

It is charged that Kruger and Lavan organized the California Police Chiefs' and Sheriffs' Association a year ago after they had been warned against soliciting advertisements for a magazine to be published as a memorial number of the annual convention of the California Sheriffs' and Undersheriffs' Association.

After the new organization was formed approximately $6000 was obtained from advertisements, investigation asserted, and in some instances the solicitors indicated to the advertiser that they represented the Sheriffs' Relief Association of Los Angeles and other peace officers. This money all has been spent, and Kruger and Lavan now are missing from the city, according to the officers.

ADVERTISING SOLD

Investigation into the solicitations of the men was ordered by Under-Sheriff Biscaillet more than two months ago when reports were received that solicitors were missing the names of Sheriff Traeger and other peace officers.

The investigation revealed, according to Crockett, that the defendants had announced that they would publish an annual magazine in September at the first convention of the organization they had formed. On the strength of the promise they had made, at the rate of $300 a page, $200 for a half-page and $100 for a quarter-page.

FAHY NAVIGATES

The progress of the flight and the keen attention Fahy was paying to his instruments and plans for night navigation as he nursed the Lockheed along.

At 4 p.m., Fahy wrote, "I noticed that while I was over Long Beach and Newport both my altimeters read 100 feet, while I believe I was well above 200 feet. There evidently was a rise in barometric pressure in this vicinity. Please check on the pressure around Long Beach as this will have a distinct bearing on my barograph."

HE FEELS FRESH

A short time later Fahy dropped another note, stating that he believed his gas consumption was higher than on the first flight due to bumpy weather, but wrote that he felt sure I can beat the record this time. Here's hoping.

"I still feel as fresh as when I started," a third note reads. "I have made three trips to San Diego to help pass the time away. All I want now is a break for good weather. Be ready to phone for weather reports at Santa Ana, San Diego and Imperial Valley points. Write them down as I come over."

JURY PICKED TO TRY

A jury of six men and six women was selected yesterday in Superior Judge Wood's court to hear the testimony in the case of Nat Cordish and E. K. Fleming, former officials of Mutual Motors, Inc., who are charged with eleven counts of grand theft and forgery in connection with the discounting of asserted forged automobile sales contracts. It is expected more than a month will be consumed in trying the case.

M'PHERSON
ATTORNEY
DIVORCED*"C. Ormsby" Loses Wife in Speedy Suit and Fails to Maintain Secret

Mrs. Maida Ormsby, 331 West Lexington Drive, Glendale, obtained a divorce late Monday afternoon from "C. Ormsby," who yesterday afternoon was identified as Cromwell Ormsby, attorney for Almee Temple McPherson, evangelist, recently a star witness for Judge Carlos Hardy at his impeachment trial at Sacramento.

Considerable effort was made to surround the identity of the defendant in secrecy, as the plaintiff did not appear in court. Attorney Ormsby yesterday at first refused to admit he was the divorce defendant, saying the defendant was his "brother, Carl." Later, however, he admitted he used the appellation "C. Ormsby."

The divorce was granted in record time, less than six hours elapsing from the filing of the suit until the granting of the interlocutory decree. Her attorney in the case was Caesar Roberts, and his, Joseph L. Palmer.

FUNERAL OF CLUBWOMAN
TO BE TODAY*Mrs. E. K. Foster, Juvenile Worker, Philanthropist and Writer, Expires

Death yesterday claimed Mrs. E. K. Foster, charter member of the Friday Morning Club and one of Los Angeles' most ardent club and welfare workers. For several months Mrs. Foster had suffered from cancer, but her condition did not become acute until a few days ago. She was taken to a Pasadena hospital, where she expired.

The funeral will be conducted today at 4 p.m. from the family home, 200 East Avenue 42, and one of the numerous songs written by her during her life will be sung by Otto Plecta, member of the family announced last night.

Mrs. Foster was one of the most enthusiastic workers of the Friday Morning Club from her arrival here forty years ago until her illness forced her to remain at home. From 1893 until 1895 she was secretary of the club, becoming president of the organization in 1906, a position she held for two years.

Her work in the club brought to her attention the large field for juvenile work open here and as a result she organized the Juvenile Protective Association, which played a major part in juvenile corrective work after the foundation of the local Juvenile Court.

A student of the arts and drama, Mrs. Foster turned to writing several years ago and two of her published works, "California Stories of Yesterday" and "Little Comedies of Today," have been widely read. She had nearly completed a book of poems at the time of her death.

KNOWN AS INVENTOR

POLICE OPINION

PERSONS SUMMONED

There are more big engineering projects, involving millions of dollars each, underway or proposed on the Pacific Coast than anywhere else in the United States, or in the world, for that matter, according to Joseph Baerman Strauss, worldwide authority on bridges and builder of some 400 of the biggest bridges in every part of the world. Mr. Strauss, head of the Strauss Engineering Corporation of Chicago, and designer of the proposed Golden Gate bridge and the East Bay bridge at San Francisco, was a guest at the Biltmore yesterday.

Here on the Pacific Coast in connection with the structural details of the famous Longview bridge, now being built in Washington, Mr. Strauss left last night for Chicago and will return late in June, at which time Los Angeles and San Francisco offices of his company will be opened, he said.

WEST DUE TO GROW

"I am confident that the Los Angeles area will lead the cities of the United States in an industrial way within the next fifteen years," Mr. Strauss declared. "The entire Pacific Coast is in for a tremendous growth, due to the development of oriental trade. Here in Los Angeles you have every advantage and every facility to make it the outstanding industrial city of America."

"Today there are more big engineering projects under way or proposed on the Pacific Coast than in any other section of the United States, and when one says the United States, one is safe in including the entire world, for America leads the world today in structural growth."

THE NEW CAR

I spent a fortune for a car—four thousand bucks, to be exact, and said, "I'll journey near and far, while speed cops watch my every act. At last I have a gorgeous wain, in which a millionaire might ride, not be afflicted with a pain, but feel his bosom swell with pride. A car that costs four thousand bucks is doubtless free from every ill; its works won't all the while groan, it must be sound, from roof to sill." Next day I had to take it back to where I bought it, for repair; the wheels did not correctly track, the tires a few signs of grievous wear. A few days later I set forth to drive her, as prescribed by Hoyer, when, as going east by north, I found the engine out of oil. Some valve or tap was badly set, and let the precious oil run out, for seven hours or thereabout. Next day the auto ran nicely, along the road it really tore, for the accelerator stuck, and I had pressed it to the floor. I had knocked a match cow through a fence and crippled up a dog or two, and people said there was no sense in trying as my car flew. Next day I was far away from town, and I was greatly perturbed, and I was thought of chasing, thereat, and thought of chasing, I found my patent jack was jammed up and wouldn't work, and I turned loose some gangster black that might have fared a heathen a day or two. I had waited half a day a good old German came along, he took his jack and raised my car, and did it all with smile and song. "You people and have less distress," he said, "from the scene he thought you'd ape German right before they're sold."

Veteran Injured
by Pedestrian

The reckless motorist has a rival. Enter now the reckless pedestrian! J. H. Culver, 86-year-old Civil War veteran, of 2027 Vineyard street, yesterday was crossing the intersection at Hoover and West Washington streets, while automobile traffic was at a standstill. A street car was moving in the same direction in which Culver was making his way. W. O. Thomas, of 611 Palm View Drive, was in a hurry to catch the car. And in running after it, according to the police report, he collided with Culver, knocking him down. The veteran fell against the fender of an automobile driven by Warren Heath of 818 Santa Monica Boulevard. Other pedestrians picked him up and took him to George-street Receiving Hospital, where he was found to have suffered a fractured leg and a fractured arm.

LENORE ULRIC'S STORY CHOSEN

Alice White Out of "Nanette"—Is In "Playing Round." George Jessel's First Fox to Be Skinner Vehicle; Alberta Vaughn Stars in H. C. Witwer Stories

BY GRACE KINGSLEY
Arriving in town today will be no less interesting a person than Lenore Ulric, who is coming west to make talking pictures for Fox. Her first story to follow "Frozen Justice," was announced yesterday by Fox officials. It will be a story called "La Gringa," by Tom Cushing, and was formerly a stage play, produced in New York. An earlier silent Fox version of the story was never completed.

If Miss Ulric appears in "Kiki," it will not be until later. In the meantime, Robert Frazer will be her leading man in "Frozen Justice," which Allan Dwan is to direct. Paul Muni, first announced, is to appear in another film. Lina Basquette and Louis Wolheim will have other featured parts. Miss Ulric is famous for her many roles played under the David Basco management, including "Tiger Rose," "Kiki," "Miss Lulu Belle," and lately "Mima."

ALICE WHITE PLAYS
NOTED COMEDY ROLE

First National has decided not to have Alice White play in "No, No, Nanette," after all. They will recast the comedy actress, and there is a big possibility that she will play the part so acceptably on the stage here in Lillian Albertson's production, will have it in the film.

Alberta Vaughn Starring

Alberta Vaughn, who won her laurels on the R-K-O. lot as the film "Telephone Girl," returns to the R-K-O. banner this week under contract to Larry Darmour, president of Darmour Productions, at a very high salary, it is said. The actress is to be starred in "The Broken Breakers," a series of twelve two-reel talking productions based on the stories of H. C. Witwer. Production started yesterday.
